NORFOLK, VA. February 25.—Henry B. Horton, foreman for Dunnavant & Walthins, contractors, was shot at 7 o'clock to'night by John Lint, nineteen years old, in front of the Horton home, at No. 1805 Glasgow Street, Portsmouth. Lint had been calling on Horton's daughter, and to this the latter objected, warning the young man to stay away.

This morning Lint received a note from Horton, telling him that he had been informed that the young man was going to kill him and threatening to have him jailed. When the two met in front of Horton's home to-night the girl's father struck Lint, the latter asserts, and threatened him. Lint drew a pistol and shot Horton three times.
